one of hawaii's living treasures is the subject of this biography hawaiian son the life and music of eddie kamae it celebrates the personal journey of an extraordinary musician and pioneering filmmaker eddie kamae the book was written by award winning author james d houston 1933 2009 in close collaboration with kamae and was designed by barbara pope of honolulu based ai pohaku press the 260 page book includes more than 60 historical photographs drawings and album covers that help to chart the high points of an influential career that has spanned more than half a century as a young man in the late 1940s kamae developed a jazz picking style that forever changed the status of the ukulele he became its reigning virtuoso for 20 years the legendary band he founded with gabby pahinui the sons of hawaii played a leading role in the hawaiian cultural renaissance by the mid 1970s kamae himself had become a folk hero known for his instrumental genius and for a vigorous singing style that carries the spirit of an ancient vocal tradition into the 21st century during the 1980s while continuing to perform arrange and lead the band kamae launched a second career as a filmmaker once again proving to be a cultural pioneer in documentaries such as listen to the forest and words earth aloha he found a filmic voice that speaks from deep within his own island world kamae's personal journey is measured by the many teachers kamae now 85 has met along the way from mary kawena pukui and pilahi paki to iolani luhine san li a kalainaina and papa henry auwae dancers and singers storytellers healers and elders have guided him in his long quest to find the sources of a rich tradition and thus to find himself it can be difficult for urbanized folk to imagine a world where the daily sounds are those of nature and of the small noises of human work and voices how much more difficult is it to imagine the incredible impact of the ancient musical dancing ceremonies of the oceanic tribes of the kanak it is evident that these ceremonies named pilou pilou by the first french missionaries had great importance in kanak life and that they were the most tremendous acoustical events to be heard in that world the beating of bark clappers and the stamping of bamboo tubes was combined with part songs by two singers accompanied by the shouting cries and whistles of hundreds of dancers all this must have left an indelible mark on the aural sensations of the participants after such ceremonies that world returned to the sounds of nature today the kanak aural world has entirely changed people are used to the noise of cars and machines to the wonders of modernization and even to those living in rural areas the presence of machine noises is so prevalent that the seas and the forests may now seem dulled this examination of kanak music and dance proves a marvellous kind of time capsule a way to see into a past environment through a persisting tradition
